COMMANDER

CDR BUDDY POE, AP

Welcome to November.

We have had a busy year and we are not slowing down. Each event manager is getting their list of volunteers put together to submit for merit marks. And there are still volunteers needed for the Down on the Docks at Sisters Creek and the JAX Lighted Boat Parade.

We are in our last hours of planning our last few events of the year: The Erv Dunn Memorial Pig Roast and the Al Richardson Memorial Turkey Dinner, and the Christmas Party. If you are interested in knowing the reason why we have named the events after past members, you can look it up on our history webpage.

For those of you who like to plan ahead, mark your calendars for the Boat Show on Jan 24th through the 26th, 2025.

We are going to try to raise a little bit of funds in the next couple of months. First, we are selling virtual Christmas cards that will appear in the December Skipper. You will read more about this later in the Skipper.

Another fund raiser will be a silent auction at the Christmas Party. We are looking for donations of gift cards, gift baskets or another desirable object. Talk to me if you have other ideas for the silent auction.

For those who would like to attend the Exec Board, we will be meeting on October 28TH at 6:30 pm at Lamb's Yacht Marina.

We will see you at Amelia Island Marina on Oct 26!!

Buddy

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

LT/C ANDREA SCHAPPERT, S

WELCOME TO FALL IN FLORIDA! Less hot weather means more fun on the water.

The Squadron has a full schedule coming up for the remainder of the year so make sure you are checking out the calendar of events and watching your emails for updated info. We will also have a few more volunteer opportunities this fall!

The events include:

Annual Pig Roast

Turkey Dinner/November General Meeting

Lighted Boat Parade

Christmas Party

We are still looking for an Administrative Officer to help with the events through the remainder of this year. If you can help out, please let myself or Buddy know.

We filled one of the member at large positions on the bridge but we are still looking for someone to fill the spot left vacant at the head of the Dockwalkers Program. Anyone who is interested, please let myself or Buddy know.

There is a fundraiser in this edition with virtual/digital Christmas Cards that will be published in the December Skipper. Please see page 13 for all the details.

Be sure to check out the upcoming events flyers in this issue so you don't miss a thing!

Thank you and we hope to see you at a meeting/event soon.

Andrea

EDUCATION

LT/C TOM ANDERSON, SN-CN

Greetings from the Educational Dept.

Our 21 September class is complete with all students passing. We completed 9 classes this year with 55 Students passing. I would like to thank our team Mark Adams, Jim Suber and Gary Callahan for assisting me with the classes.

The Marine Navigation Course is in progress with 12 students. Mark Adams and Gary Callahan have been working on the class presentation for several weeks. They are teaching the latest version of the course using OPENCPN.

AGAIN:::

We are planning on a Marine Electrical Systems Course in the 4th Quarter. We have a new instructor, John Clark. John is retired from the Navy with a background in electrical systems. Talking with John the class will be very interesting.

Please let me know if you are interested!!!!

There is a new version of the Celestial Navigation Class. This will be a standalone course not requiring any other Navigation Classes.

Also new Inland Boating Course should be ready by mid-2025. Advanced Navigation has been revised and Engine Maintenance.

The Education Department at the National Level has been very busy!!!

Live your Dreams

HELPFUL BOATING TIPS

Tips for easy anchoring

Every boat operator should master the art of safely and securely anchoring their boat. Abide by these guidelines to excel in anchoring.

1. Choose an area clear of boats and underwater obstacles.

Check your chart to ensure no cables, wrecks or other underwater obstructions will foul your line. Determine the water depth and bottom type (preferably sand or mud). Calculate the amount of line needed; the general rule is five to seven times the water depth plus the distance from the water's surface to where the anchor attaches to the bow. If the water is 8 feet deep and your bow cleat is 2 feet from the surface, multiply 10 feet by 5 to get the amount of anchor line to put out. Secure your anchor to the bow cleat at the point on the line where you want it to stop. Then, with your boat heading into the wind (or current if that is stronger) move into position, put the engine in idle and stop the boat with the bow just forward of where you intend to drop anchor.

2. Lower the anchor slowly.

With your life jacket on, slowly lower the anchor into the water from the bow. Don't throw it over the side; this tends to foul the line. Your boat should begin to drift backward with the wind or current, allowing the anchor to move down and away as it enters the water. This backward drift is important. If your boat is stationary when the anchor reaches bottom, the chain piles on top and prevents the anchor from digging in. If your boat isn't drifting backward on its own, put the engine in reverse and move slowly backward as you pay out the anchor rode. This stretches out the chain from the bow and ensures the anchor will lie on the bottom facing in the correct direction.

3. Keep tension on the anchor rode.

As you pay out the anchor rode, maintain tension to keep the boat's bow pointed toward the anchor. This ensures your anchor, chain and rope don't become tangled. If you're anchoring in strong winds, you may have to put the engine in forward gear to control the speed and direction of backward drift.

4. Set the anchor.

With the anchor rode out and the boat in the intended swing zone, secure the rode, let the anchor dig in and stop the boat. Exercise caution: Wrap the rode once or twice around a cleat and keep your hands well clear. Once you feel the anchor dig in and set, put the engine in idle reverse and back down on the anchor to secure it to the bottom. This is especially important where the bottom has a layer of sand and grass. Once the anchor is set, note any landmarks in relation to the boat. Check these reference points frequently to make sure you're not drifting.

Choose location.

Lower anchor.

Keep tension.

Set anchor.

5. Weigh anchor.

Once you've set the anchor, pulling or weighing anchor should be easy. Still, proceed with care and wear your life jacket. The combination of anchor pull, current and weight can sometimes swamp a small boat. Lift the anchor as vertically as possible and be careful not to hit the side of the boat. Wash off any mud and debris while lifting. – U.S. Coast Guard

JACKSONVILLE LIGHT BOAT PARADE

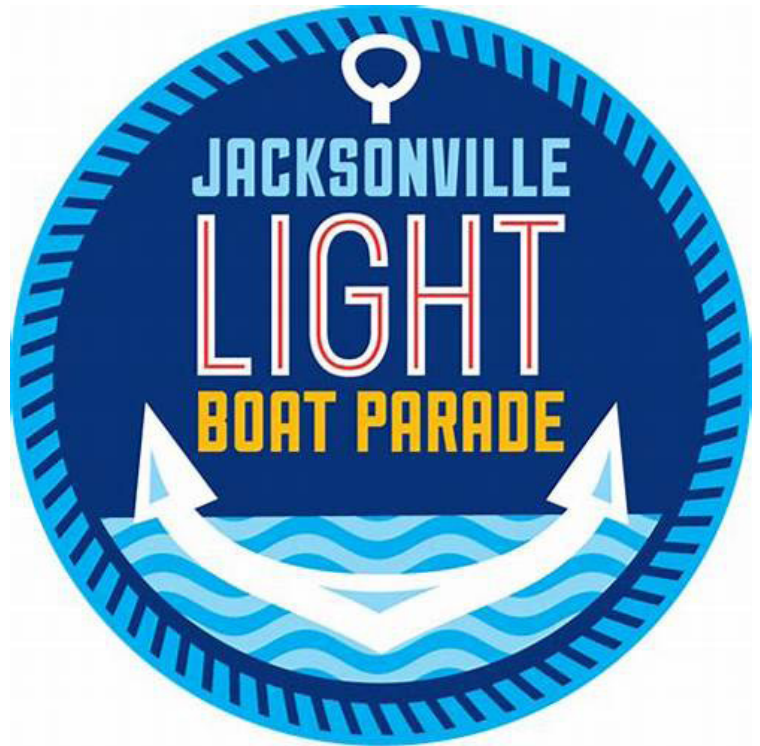

November 30, 2024

6:00pm

St. Johns River

Downtown

Jacksonville, Florida 32202

A Jacksonville holiday tradition is making its return to Thanksgiving weekend. The City of Jacksonville is excited to announce the Jacksonville Light Boat Parade will be held on Saturday, November 30, 2024 on the St. Johns River.

The Jacksonville Light Boat Parade has been a holiday tradition for more than 30 years.

Vessels of all shapes and sizes adorn their hulls with festive decorations as they float along the north and south banks of the St. Johns River. Residents and visitors alike gather downtown along the North and Southbank Riverwalks to witness this magical event. Following the parade, the evening concludes with a beautiful fireworks show featuring the one-of-a-kind waterfall fireworks on the Main Street and Acosta Bridge.

Participants will be judged on overall look and decoration composition.

VESSEL SAFETY CHECKS

VESSEL SAFETY CHECK (VSC)

A major component of a fun filled outing is a reliable boat which has all the necessary equipment operating properly. A free vessel safety check (VSC) is an important safe-guard, and our certified examiners will be happy to perform the check for you. There are no negative consequences if you don't pass. Our goal is simply to help make boating as safe as possible for you, your family and your friends, through education.

The United States Power Squadrons and the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary are partners in this valuable program offered to the boating public. All examiners are certified and trained on the latest requirements. The Vessel Safety Check is similar to the review that is performed by the U.S. Coast Guard if you are boarded, except that it is voluntary, and only you receive the results. Our Vessel Safety Examiners will perform a 15 point safety check which includes:

Display of Numbers	Registration/Documentation	Visual Distress Signals (VDS)
Personal Flotation Devices (PFD)	Fire Extinguishers	Ventilation
Backfire Flame Control	Sound Producing Devices	Navigation Lights
Pollution Placard	MARPOL Track Placard	Marine Sanitation Devices
Navigation Rules	State and/or Local Requirements	Overall Vessel Condition

To schedule a Vessel Safety Exam, you may contact any of our Jacksonville Squadron examiners:
