COMMANDER

CDR GARY CALLAHAN, SN-CN

September has been a hectic month, with a lot of balls in the air. Sometimes hectic is fun. Other you get a reminder that your Skipper article is needed while driving seven hours to a National Board meeting. As I write this, I'm sitting in a Marriott hotel in Raleigh, North Carolina, reflecting on everything we've accomplished this summer and looking ahead to what promises to be an exciting year or two for our squadron.

Looking back at last month's article, we celebrated many successful events—some long-standing traditions and several new activities that are already becoming favorites. It is exciting to see our calendar continue to grow with opportunities for members to enjoy boating, fellowship, and education.

One of my personal favorites has been the Lunch Bunch. Lisa came up with the idea of bringing together members who prefer a daytime social gathering instead of an evening meeting. Once a month, we explore a different local restaurant, enjoy good food and great conversation, and usually decide where we'll meet the following month before leaving. The discussions often lead to new activity ideas, future speakers, and ways to make our club even more enjoyable. If you haven't joined us yet, give it a try—you'll be glad you did.

Coming up is our raft-up for the Blue Angels Air Show. It promises to be one of the best seats in the house.

Several boats that have been out of commission for repairs are back in service, giving us additional room for members who don't have boats of their own. If you would like to attend, give me a call and we'll find you a seat aboard one of the participating boats.

Another exciting development is our newly redesigned website. Rob Morgan, with support from Twyla and Buddy, has transformed an outdated, non-functioning website into something truly impressive. We demonstrated it during our last Executive Committee meeting, and the response was overwhelmingly positive. Each Bridge member now has responsibility for updating portions of the site, which will help keep information current and make the website a valuable resource for both members and prospective members. My thanks to everyone who made this project a reality.

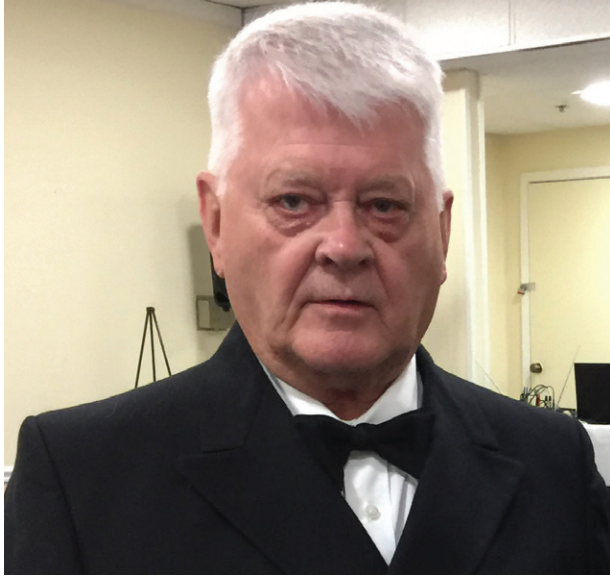

Finally, this is one more reminder about the Erv Dunn Memorial Pig Roast on Saturday, October 3. For more than 25 years, Tom and Suzanne Keenan have made this one of our squadron's most anticipated events. In addition to another outstanding meal, this year's festivities will include our first Cornhole Tournament, which we hope becomes a new annual tradition. Please RSVP to Tom Keenan at 904-753-4557 or okeenan@bellsouth.net, or to Lisa at 352-562-1464 or lisabee4him@yahoo.com.

As always, thank you for making America's Boating Club of Northeast Florida such a welcoming and active organization. I look forward to seeing you on the water—and around the dinner table.

Until next month, stay safe on the land and on the water.
Gary

Greetings from the Educational Dept.

Our latest ABC3 class is complete with 10 students, everyone passed. The next ABC3 class are scheduled for November 14 and February 14, 2027. The Prime Osborn Boat Show will be January 22, 23 and 24, 2027. Hopefully we will be able to recruit some students for 2027. A reminder anyone born after 1 January 1988 is required by the State of Florida to take an approved Safe Boating Course.

The NEW Advanced Marine Navigation Class is IN PROGRESS. We are one of the first Squadrons offering the Class. Our instructors Mark Adams and Gary Callahan are very qualified to take on the task. Mark and Gary have already spent many hours working on the class material and working with the Navigation Committee on issues.

"If you have any questions involving Education, feel free to contact me." As a reminder, we still have the classroom at Lambs Yacht Center, we have instructors. WE NEED STUDENTS.....

VESSEL SAFETY CHECKS

VESSEL SAFETY CHECK (VSC)

A major component of a fun filled outing is a reliable boat which has all the necessary equipment operating properly. A free vessel safety check (VSC) is an important safe-guard, and our certified examiners will be happy to perform the check for you. There are no negative consequences if you don't pass. Our goal is simply to help make boating as safe as possible for you, your family and your friends, through education.

The United States Power Squadrons and the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary are partners in this valuable program offered to the boating public. All examiners are certified and trained on the latest requirements. The Vessel Safety Check is similar to the review that is performed by the U.S. Coast Guard if you are boarded, except that it is voluntary, and only you receive the results. Our Vessel Safety Examiners will perform a 15 point safety check which includes:

Display of Numbers	Registration/Documentation	Visual Distress Signals (VDS)
Personal Flotation Devices (PFD)	Fire Extinguishers	Ventilation
Backfire Flame Control	Sound Producing Devices	Navigation Lights
Pollution Placard	MARPOL Track Placard	Marine Sanitation Devices
Navigation Rules	State and/or Local Requirements	Overall Vessel Condition

HELPFUL BOATING TIPS

BE MINDFUL OF YOUR BOAT'S WAKE

The rules of the road dictate how you operate your vessel while underway to prevent collision. But what if no risk of collision exists? Are you free to do whatever you want when operating near other vessels? Of course not. Look, note the surrounding conditions, and listen; be aware of yourself and others in the vicinity. Above all, remember you are responsible for your boat's wake and any damage caused by it.

When overtaking a slower vessel in open water, do so with as much room as depth conditions allow. Slow your speed, if necessary, to avoid rocking the other vessel. Whenever you drive your motor vehicle on the road, use the rules you have learned, and practice positioning and passing. There's nothing worse than being below deck in a slow cruiser or sailboat, cooking breakfast, and being suddenly overtaken in close quarters by a loud, wake-throwing, go-fast boater, especially if the wake causes hot eggs, bacon and coffee to be thrown around the galley.

When overtaking other vessels, they may sometimes move slightly one way or the other, letting you know where they would prefer you to pass. Slow down, and look for such signals prior to making a decision. Remember that sometimes the boat being overtaken may need to slow its speed to accommodate the passing vessel. If you're proceeding at a comfortable pace and see an overtaking vessel approach, be aware that the passing boat should slow to just enough speed difference to pass you successfully without disruption to your or their vessel. However, if the passing vessel underestimates your speed and is moving at an excessive speed, the passing vessel may throw an uncomfortable wake, so be prepared to make corrections to your course and speed as conditions and depth allow to make this comfortable for you, your passengers and the passing vessel. You may need to slow your vessel to allow the passing vessel to pass at a slower speed as well, which allows for a much smaller wake.

If you're overtaking a vessel under sail, pass it well to leeward (downwind) or pass astern (behind) in a crossing situation so as to not block the vessel's wind. Keep in mind that a vessel under sail is not as readily maneuverable as a vessel under power, and is more susceptible to water and wave conditions.

Always remember: You are responsible for your wake and any damage done by it. —Bob Goodwin
